Our ground-breaking legacy

With over 50 years' experience, our strong heritage of providing affordable cover at the right levels, alongside expert support and excellent service, underpins our unique proposition.

Founded in 1965, Endsleigh was established by the National Union of Students to champion affordable insurance designed for students, when others wouldn't. We created the first 'group possessions' policy over 30 years ago, arranging possessions insurance for students via their university, offering value added service whilst providing market leading protection.

We currently work with over 380 accommodation partners including 140 universities, providing block contents insurance to over 500,000 students in the UK via their accommodation provider.

The group possessions policy is available to university and private halls providers, letting agents and landlords, and is regularly reviewed to reflect the ever-changing needs of our customers.

“ University of South Wales have provided insurance cover to students via Endsleigh for many years and the policy is pretty much expected as a standard benefit across the sector.

The product provides us with peace of mind that students will be protected for their important valuables and our dedicated partnership manager keeps everything really straightforward for us to be able to implement the cover.

Nick Hennessy, Head of Accommodation Services, University of South Wales

Driving value for you and your students

Supporting duty of care

We recognise that living in a new environment can bring many challenges that can be difficult to overcome. An adequate insurance provision demonstrates an understanding of potential exposures to help mitigate risks.

The cover is automatic for all residents, which provides an affordable and accessible way for students to be insured during their stay.

Providing peace of mind

We understand that the loss of key valuables can cause a student wider difficulties beyond just a financial loss. Through adequate support, we ensure this policy supports wider student wellbeing.

Tenant liability protection is included with all policies. You will have peace of mind that fittings and fixtures are protected all year round.

Supporting a market standard proposition

Group possessions insurance is now a standard benefit across universities and accommodation providers, with over 140 universities providing cover. Each year, more private accommodation providers are aligning their proposition with student expectations.

This cover enhances your proposition and protects your residents against real risks that could otherwise have a negative impact on their experience when living in your accommodation.

“Accommodation Services have provided insurance cover to students as part of the licence agreement for many years. If this is something you have not considered before, it is certainly a selling point for both students and landlords. There are a range of options offered so it can be tailored to suit your requirements.”

Deborah Scrivens, Operations Manager, Birmingham City University

Key features

Key valuables protected

Laptops, tablets and other important gadgets are protected as standard on this policy.

Theft, fire and flood

Cover as standard against fire, flood and theft of a resident's belongings within their accommodation. Providers can tailor the benefits of cover to your specific requirements with a range of options available.

Tenants' liability protection

Fittings and fixtures are protected as standard under this policy. We provide £5,000 worth of cover, per tenant, for damage to accommodation.

Low excess rates

Our policies are fully designed for students and we include low excesses as standard.

Major incident support

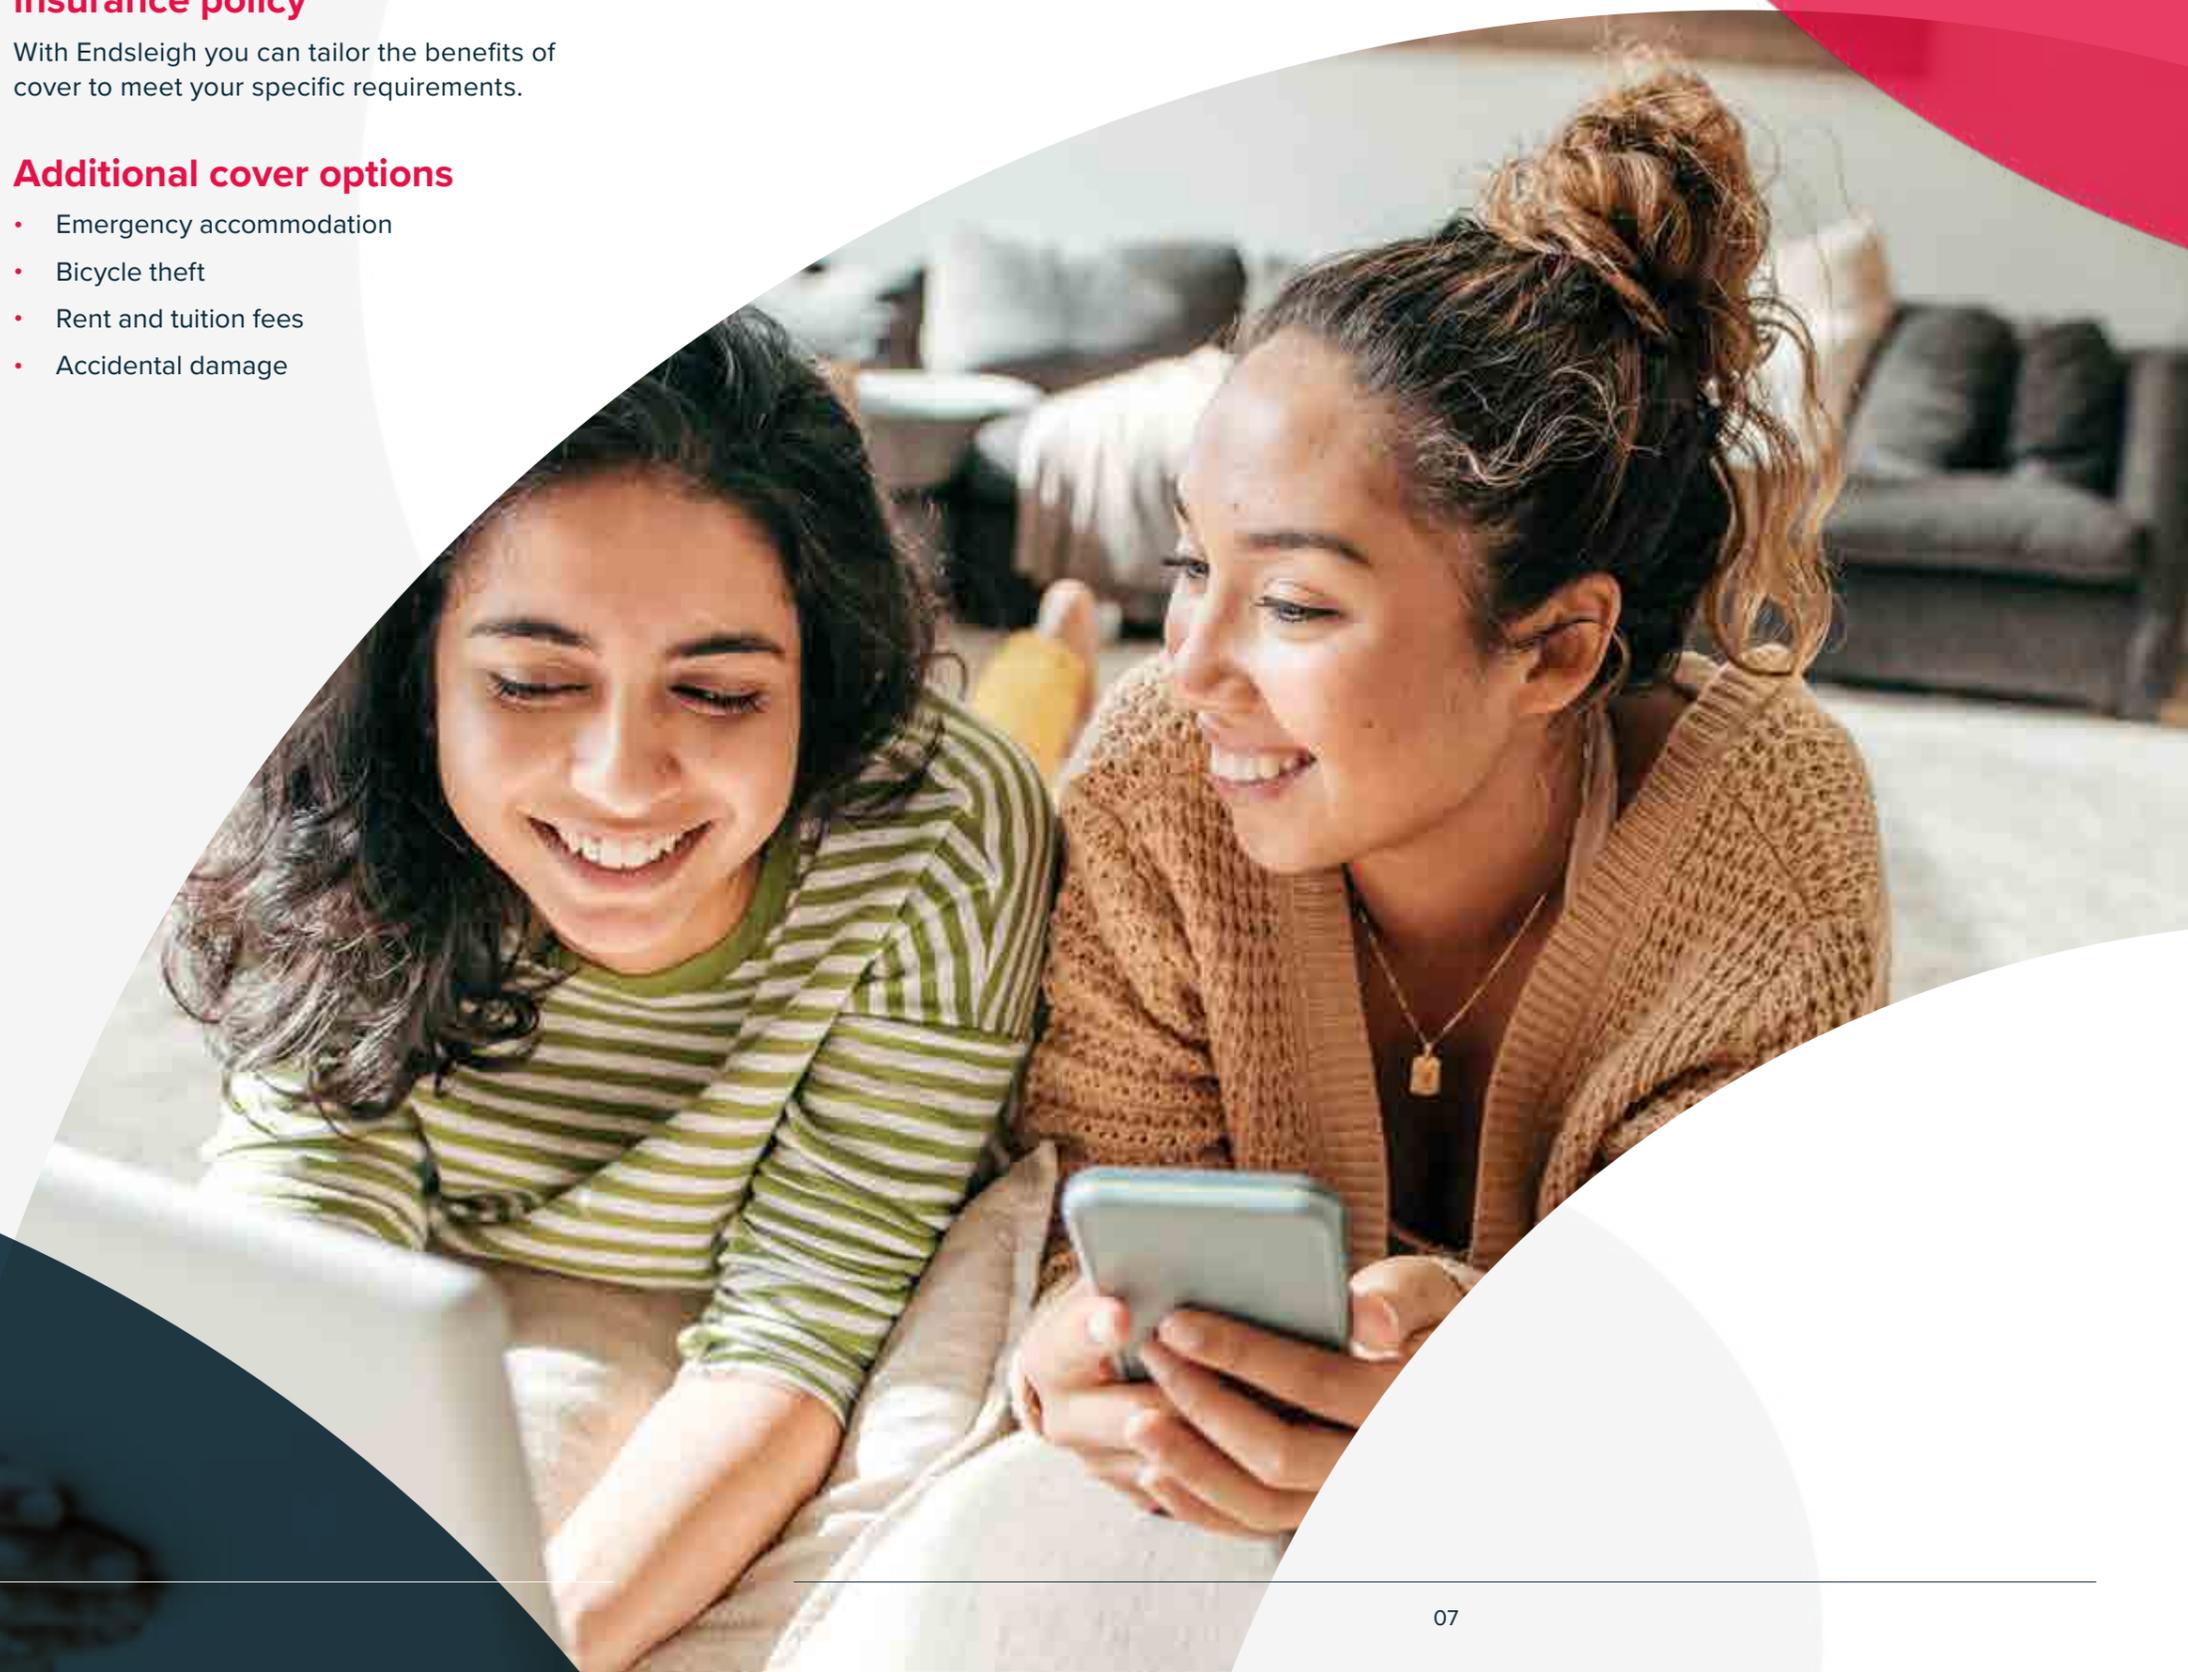

In the event of a major incident impacting a large number of students, such as a fire or a flood, this policy will provide end to end support for you and your students.

A flexible contents insurance policy

With Endsleigh you can tailor the benefits of cover to meet your specific requirements.

Additional cover options

- Emergency accommodation
- Bicycle theft
- Rent and tuition fees
- Accidental damage

More reasons to partner with Endsleigh

We make things easy

We ensure our policies are simple to implement and are committed to ensuring you as a provider can have peace of mind without the need for excessive administration.

Sustainable premiums

We are committed to providing affordable and sustainable premiums that are designed for the long term. Each year we experience a 98% retention rate with our accommodation partners.

Partnership manager support

You will have a dedicated partnership manager, backed by an experienced education team, who you can contact directly and will visit on request.

Our UK based claims service

Our dedicated possessions claims team will deal directly with tenants, minimising your involvement and saving you time.

Marketing support

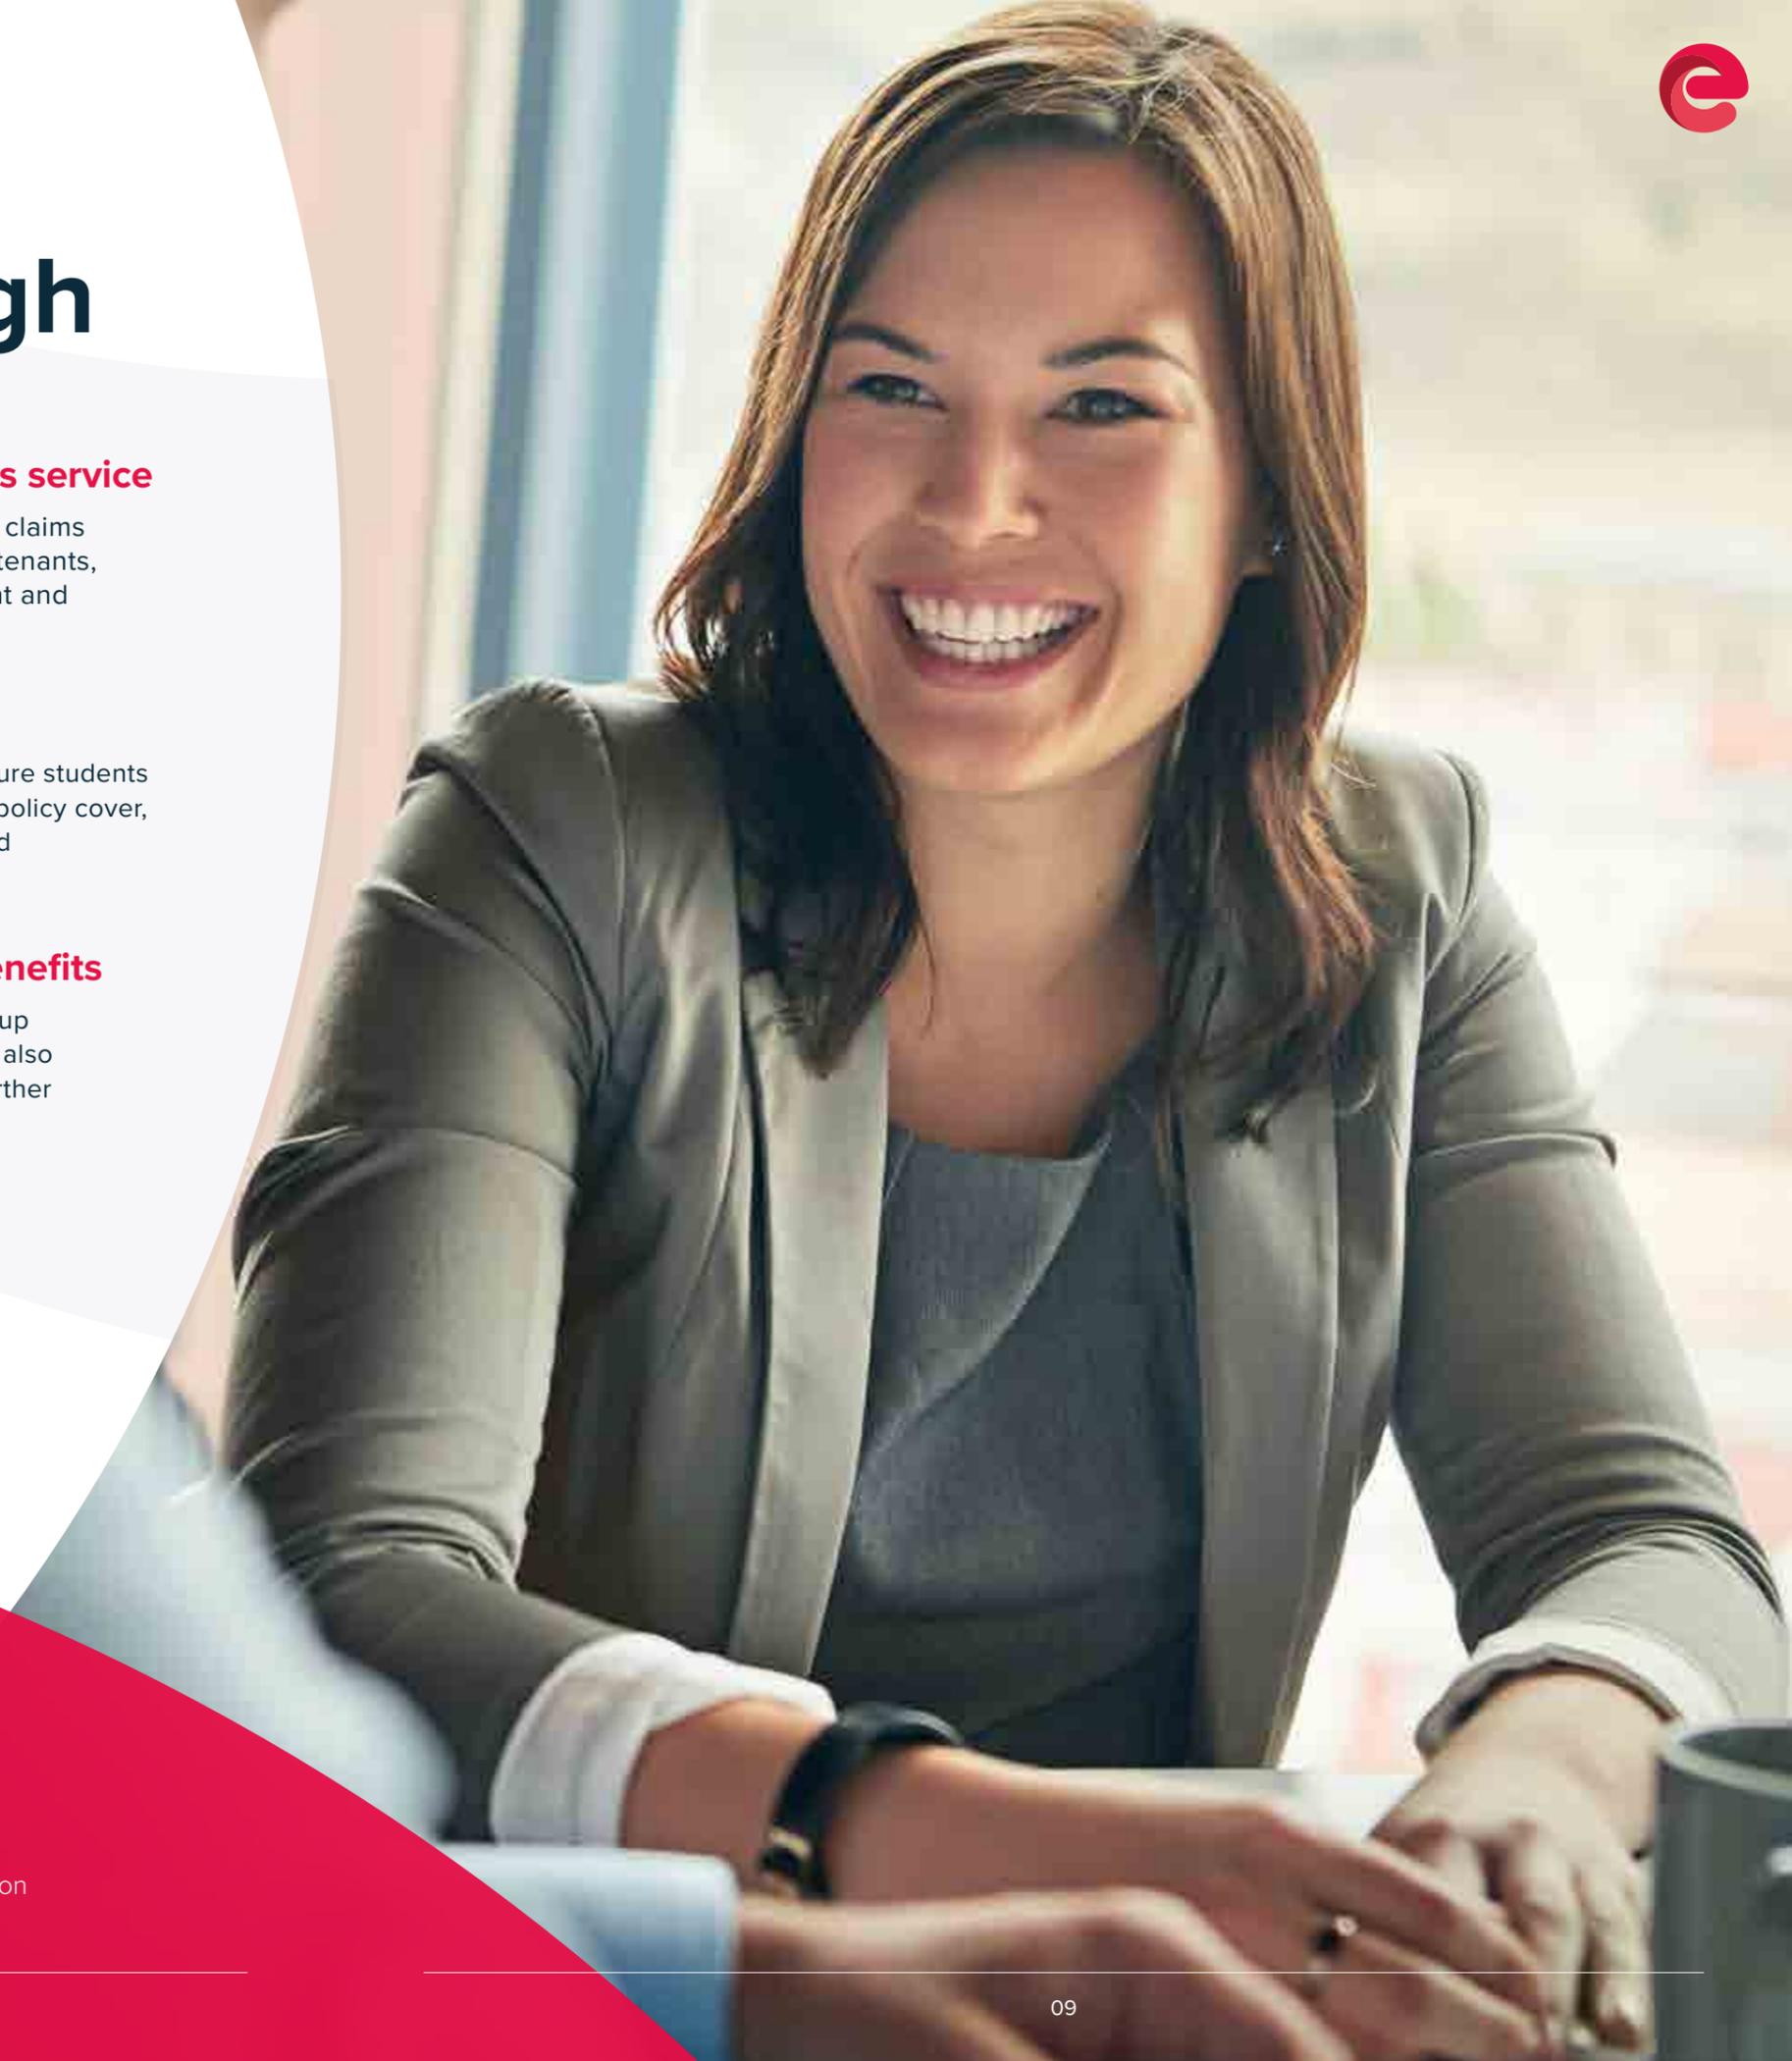

We will work with you to ensure students are fully informed about the policy cover, through a range of digital and printed materials.

Access to further benefits

Through the provision of group insurance, your students will also have access to a range of further benefits including additional personal product options.

“ From my perspective, the partnership manager has made it much simpler to just make informed decisions. Given the amount of things we have to juggle in universities, I am particularly grateful for the time and patience given by the partnership manager. ”

Rocchi Acierno, Head of Accommodation Services, Goldsmiths, University of London

What do students say?

Over half a million students now benefit from their accommodation provider including an automatic level of insurance from Endsleigh.

We recently asked students who made a claim on an Endsleigh policy to feed back their experience:

“ During my last year at university our house got broken into. Unfortunately, my Macbook and some other personal belongings got stolen. As you can understand this made an impact on my mental health and on top of that I had several important essays that were due within the following two weeks.

Endsleigh were extremely helpful and understanding of the situation. At first, I was concerned that claiming my loss would be a difficult and lengthy process. However, it turned out it was the opposite of what I'd thought. They quickly reimbursed the money for my stolen Macbook, which meant I was able to submit my essays on time. Without Endsleigh this situation would have been extremely difficult.

Yannick, 3rd year student, University of West London

“ Broken phone and smashed screen at the start of lockdown. Even though businesses were all slowing down, my phone was repaired and later replaced within a week. A real effort was made to make sure that I had my phone collected and delivered to and from my home address (rather than my university) within a short amount of time. ”

Olivia, 3rd year student, University of Birmingham

“ My laptop was stolen when our house was burgled. This affected my studies as I was unable to use it to do any work until a new one arrived.

I rang Endsleigh straight away after the police had left, and gave them all the details of my claim. The person on the other end of the phone was very helpful and the process was complete within 20 minutes. My new laptop was in perfect condition and arrived soon after that. I am very glad that my Mum recommended I use Endsleigh Insurance. ”

Sean, 3rd year student, University of Bristol
